INTRODUCING JENNI

Chilling with Lucas is a family & lifestyle blog.

I like to write about what we get up to, days out, fashion, reviews and anything else that may take my fancy. I live in Lancashire with my partner who also likes to guest post on the blog, and our son Lucas who was born in February 2015.

WORKING WITH BRANDS

I am happy to collaborate with brands to review products or services that fit with our family. I can also run giveaways on behalf of a brand alongside a product review. If a brand would like a stand alone giveaway, and the prize fits with my blog, then I am happy to offer this for a fee. I accept sponsored posts for a fee, including pre-written content. All reviews and sponsored posts will be disclosed. I am open to advertising placements, for a monthly fee.
