

Create
Your Action Plan
to Improve Public
Speaking Skills

The background features a soft, painterly style of pink and purple flowers and butterflies. The flowers are scattered throughout, with some in sharp focus and others blurred in the background. The overall color palette is pastel, with light blues and pinks. The butterflies are in various poses, some flying and some resting on flowers. The central content is framed by a thin, light-colored border.

Step #3

Set Specific Objectives

What are the measurable and achievable objectives you want to reach for your public speaking skills?

Step #10

Join a Public Speaking Group

Have you explored the option of joining a public speaking group, such as Toastmasters? How will you engage with the group and participate in meetings?

A decorative border of pink cherry blossoms with purple centers and green stems, set against a light teal and pink background. The blossoms are scattered around the edges of the page, framing the central content.

Step #12

Learn from Experts

Who are the accomplished public speakers whose style and techniques you admire? How will you study their speeches, presentations, and delivery?

